The Theme

WITHIN THESE PAGES WE HAVE TRIED TO PORTRAY THE GUARDIAN SPIRIT OF OUR ALMA MATER, THE SPIRIT WHICH HOVERS ABOVE US WITHIN THESE WALLS. IF IN YEARS TO COME, THIS VOLUME MAY SERVE TO REMIND US OF THE IDEALS, THE ASPIRATIONS, AND THE INMOST THOUGHTS THAT ONCE WERE OURS, AND IF THESE REMEMBRANCES CAN INSPIRE US TO ANSWER THE CHALLENGE WHICH JOAN HAS GIVEN US, THEN THE 1928 "VIRGINIAN" WILL TRULY BE AN OFFERING ON THE ALTAR OF LOVE AND SERVICE

1928
volume 27
The annual publication of the students of
State Teachers College
Farmville, Virginia

Foreword

Believing that the faithful Builders of the past and present will see the realization of their dreams in a future S. T. C., we have attempted to blend a touch of the old and the new in this 1928 volume of the Virginian, and reveal a glimpse into the brilliant future

Alma Mater

All hail, Alma Mater! Dear Mother, to thee,
Thy daughters true, faithful, and loyal will be;
Thy gentle instruction, thy influence so sweet,
Will go with them always—a guide to their feet.
Thy loving protection, thy nurturing care,
Will lead them to cherish things lovely and fair;
All hail, Alma Mater! Dear Mother, to thee,
Thy daughters true, faithful, and loyal will be.

Thy halls and arcades with their calm, classic air,
Thy campus with blossoms perennially fair,
Thy trees and thy fountains, thy vine-covered walls,
Will live in their memory, whatever befalls.
Though far from thy care and protection they roam,
They still hold thee dear, as a well-beloved home.
All hail, Alma Mater! Dear Mother, to thee,
Thy daughters true, faithful, and loyal will be.

To Joan of Arc

or

Youth

With head thrown back
And eyes strained upward but ever forward,
Onward she gallops
Into the future.
Standing in her saddle,
With eyes of vision and of truth
She views the distant land,
And fearlessly moves onward to the goal ahead.
Horse's feet planted firmly on the ground,
Onward she gallops.

II.

With tears of pity
She views the slain
Upon the battle ground.
(How can she whose love and faith
Forever call,
How can she see and still move on?)
Weeping with those who weep,
Ever weeping,
Onward she gallops
In sympathy.
Gallop on, O gentle Joan, gallop on!

III.

Soul of love,
Thy faith in friends
Hath kept thy spirit
Ever living in the heart of youth;
Has permeated mind and heart,
Till we cluster 'round thy figure,
Kneeling at thy side,
Seeking guidance from thy gentle hand,
Drinking deep the inspiration
From thine upward lifted eyes.
Gallop on, O happy Joan, gallop on,
While we gather 'round thy statue,
Clasping hands in friendship's lasting tie,
And we pledge ourselves to follow—
Where thou leadest we will follow—
Gallop on, O happy Joan, gallop on!

Our Leader

Ah! Joan, thy spirit is the leader of us all.
We look to thee amid this hurried life,
And ask that thou wouldst help us in the strife,
Before our hopes and aspirations fall.

Be thine the voice to call us ever on
That we may catch thy spirit and the Light
That through the ages shone and led aright
Those leaders of stout heart—though they be gone.

We are the youth—the leaders of the way—
And we would have thy spirit for our guide.
Ah, if we could but have thee by our side
We should not fear, nor dread the coming day.

Within our hearts today we breathe the prayer
That thy unselfish spirit may live there!

On First Seeing the Statue of Joan of Arc in Action

I gazed, breathless—
I saw a figure quivering with emotion,
Loyal to a Voice, with true devotion;
I saw a body tense for eager action,
Eyes heavenward as if by strange attraction.

I breathed, waited—
I felt a heart beating with agony and pain,
Yet daring to advance and suffer again;
I sensed the soul of Joan in the air nearby,
And knew a Dreamer had dared to live and die!

—Rosalind Harrell.

The Ideal

The Hall was hushed save for the sound
Of Arthur's voice, calling forth the knights of the Table Round;
With emblazoned shield held low—does each one bow,
To receive the blessing and take the vow
Of a life's pursuit, in seeking the Holy Grail,
With this the Ideal nought else might prevail.

Today, within the corridors of the heart
Of each soul, of our class a part,
Doth our God call each one to stand
And joining each hand in hand,
Doth bless us and send us on our way
To seek our Holy Grail of glory for Alma Mater—alway.

—Frances Wilson.

"And why may not a modern maid,
Though wearing neither casque nor blade,
Be valorous still and unafraid,
And so come riding, riding,
To meet the world's command?"

Beacon Light

Turbulent were days for France ere shone forth
That angelic life-inspiring Maiden.
—Joan!

Like a meteor hurling thru the spaces,
A voice swept her mellow, pure soul,
Eager, waiting for its call to duty.
—Joan!

Like a phantom, yet of iron she lead them
From the darkness of tyrannic pressure,
Head flung high to God beseeching vision,
Sword clean-sheathed with honor at her armor
Beaming, gleaming as a guiding beacon.
—Joan!

Battle won, her name revered by many—
Yet were those who, stumbling in the shadows,
Set in flames that guiding beam from star-land!
—Joan!

Soul so great yet lingered to be spoke of—
Heard of—felt—whose bounty is aspired to.
—Joan!

Be thou still my glimmering, faultless leader,
Calling forth my courage, love and honor,
Shining bright to battle from the darkness
To the glorious rays of understanding—
—Joan!

—Elizabeth Mae Taylor.

Within Our Bounds

The stage is set, the actors here;
Draw up the curtain slowly.
Falstaff and Hamlet are no more,
But in our actions reappear.
To every one a part is given:
To you, to me, to each.
To vie with Mercury in a race,
Or dim Diana's sylvan grace;
To master Latin prose or verse;
Find laws that rule the Universe,
Or stars that wheel in space;
To make a simple home for man,
Where joy and sunlight enter in;
All, all are worthy arts,
For mastering if we can,
But we must play our various parts,
According to the larger plan.

—Mamie Hurt, '30.

Activities

I wish I had a silver net,
  I'd stretch it in the sun
And catch for you the day-time dreams
  A-warming, one by one.

I wish I had a silver net,
  I'd stretch it in the sky
And hold for you the unborn dreams
  That God takes walking by.

I wish I had a silver net . . .
  But what am I to do
With a tattered, trailing net
  And a broken dream or two?

—L. B.

The Honor System

To live our life at its best, to grow into wider freedom, to make and to accept the pervasive college spirit, to leave Farmville a little stronger than we found it—for this the Honor System came into being and for this the Student Government Association exists.

With our wondering eyes uplifted
To your rapt face, Joan,
We have trod the years together
Till our race is almost done.

And I think we hear your voices
As you heard them long ago,
And I think that your pure ardor
In our hearts has learned to glow.

So we would heed your voices.
Loyalty and Faith and Love—
Selfless, raise our Alma Mater
To the stars above.

Code of Ethics of the Pan-Hellenic Association

This association desires to go on record as believing that membership in the association obligates every sorority on its roll and every initiate thereof:

To co-operate with college authorities.

To respect and obey the letter and the spirit of any agreement made by the college and the association.

To refrain from the discussion of sorority disagreements.

To refrain from speaking disparagingly of any sorority or non-sorority girl.

To regulate personal conduct so that it shall at all times conform in spirit and appearance with the accepted standards of good breeding.

To conduct all rushing as inconspicuously as possible and to make the lines of demarcation between sorority and non-sorority girls as slight as possible.

To remember that of those to whom much is given, much is required.

To remember that sorority badge is not a mark of superiority, but a pledge to high endeavor.

To remember that the unity of sororities in the teachers' field means mutual improvement and protection, and to maintain the high standards for which the teachers must strive.

To remember that a girl who smokes, drinks, or who breaks college rules, is not conforming to the letter or to the spirit of Pan-Hellenic standards.

Humor

She: "A new hat makes any woman excited."
He: "It certainly goes to her head."

ANTIPATHIES

A girl I simply can't admire is Rose.
To hear her talk excites my ire
For she talks through her nose.

It's all right to remember that the early bird catches the worm but "Skinny" Craft says don't forget that the early bird goes to bed early.

Teacher: "What is vaseline?"
Stude: "Vaseline is petroleum that has went to college."

Dr. Simpkins: "What is the difference between capital and labor?"
Polly: "Capital is what you loan and labor is what it takes to get it back."

Teacher: "What were the dying words of Lord Chesterfield?"
Class (in chorus): "They satisfy."

Zozie: "My Mother gave my sorority some new evening dresses."
Ellen S.: "I thought she gave them to you."
Zozie: "Well, what's the difference?"

"And it came to pass," said Miss Stubbs, as she put a "D" on a Sociology Test.

Who?

Who is the one that's very small
The one for whom the boys fall?
It's Mabel!

Who is the eternal sport
The Tennis champion of our court?
It's Gwen!

Who is the one that leads the dance?
Who holds her audience in a trance?
Jane Reed!

Who are the ones that guard us all?
Who seem always walking on the halls—
The Government!

Who is the one that when we're blue
We tell our saddest troubles to?
Miss Mary!

Who is it that's right in step
With songs and cheers with lotsa pep?
Red 'n Etta!

Who is our beauty, and our queen?
And like a lady of the screen—
It's Anne!

Who is it we think is swell?
The one who answers to the bell—
Aunt Lucy!

Who is she who gives us mail
And has "entrancing" books for sale?
Maudie K.

Where is this merry jolly band,
It seems the finest in the land?
Why S. T. C.!

—V. Walker.

A Little Ditty

There was a young girl who chewed gum,
Everybody thought she was dumb,
She chewed it in class,
Whenever she'd pass
'Twas always that dumb, with her gum.

When the dinner bell starts ringing,
And the girls run down the hall,
Don't get excited cause—
There ain't no food a'tall.

The stars—the moon—a cozy room,
A man with arms so bold,
His fair caressed
His love expressed—
Oh! this story can't be told.

If a man tells you he loves you,
Believe him not, my dear;
Don't trust a man in Richmond
When you know he should be here.

When date nites come,
Our Rotunda in the hall
Is laden with fair damsels,
Hanging over to see—all—
The Rotunda is very useful
And convenient, they all say,
But what can we do
To keep those girls away?

Rub-a-dub-dub—
They call her a nub,
They call him a nub also;
But the nubbiest nub
Of all the nubs,
Is the starter of "nub", you know.
